Hamlin Methodist Church to Launch "Spiritual Life Crusade," July 15

A 10-day "Spiritual Life Crusade" will get underway in the First Methodist Church of Hamlin on Friday, July 15, it was announced this week by Dr. Will C. House, pastor.

The crusade will continue Sunday, July 24, with services slated each day at 10 a. m. and each evening at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Frank L. Turner, widely known evangelist, of Fort Worth, will come here to lead in the revival effort, Dr. House said.

Dr. Turner will not only do preaching but will conduct congregational singing, and direct the work of personal evangelism.

A pastor in central Texas for 15 years, Dr. Turner served churches in Mamliton, Cisco, Ballinger and Fort Worth. During this period he conducted many revival meetings throughout the conference, with outstanding results.

In 1938 Dr. Turner was elected for almost four years.

During his presidency the school was entirely freed of indebtedness, and more than $50,000 worth of improvements were made.

In 1942 Dr. Turner resigned as president of McMurry to become a general evangelistic work he has conducted 117 crusades in five states and nine conferences.

Almost 2,000 conversions have been recorded in meetings conducted by the evangelist. He will come here from Paris Texas where he will close a crusade July 10.

Dr. House said the public is invited to attend the meetings.

No 'Snakes in Boots', But Fire in Grass Seen

Dr. J. W. McCrary was not a victim of jack elephants, or of snakes in his boots last Friday evening, when he turned in a fire alarm. But he was seeing fire where no fire existed.

Dr. McCrary looked out a rear window of his home and saw a ruddy glow near his office building. Above the glow was what appeared to be a cloud of smoke.

A second look convinced McCrary that his office building was in flames, and he called the fire department.

The "fire" proved to be the city's new DDT spraying machine in action. The glow was from lights being used on the truck, and the smoke was from the fog sprayed from the device.

VFW Asks Boys to Sign Boxing Entries

Hamlin boys who are interested in being trained for boxing, or who want to enter the annual Golden Gloves competition, are asked to sign application blanks, C. W. Gold, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, said Thursday.

Application blanks will be available within a few days, Gold said, and all Hamlin youths are eligible to participate in the boxing program.

VFW Asks Clean Up of Cemetery

Mayor to Be Asked to Issue Proclamation Setting Aside 'Work Day' in Cemetery

Plans for a general cleanup of the Hamlin cemetery were discussed at the Wednesday evening meeting of Veterans of Foreign Wars, according to C. W. Gold, commander.

The VFW spent considerable money and time last month in attempting to clean up the cemetery and officials of the cemetery association said a great deal of progress was made on the job.

However, Gold said, the burial grounds have so many weeds that it is impossible to do a thorough job with the limited personnel available to the veterans group.

A committee composed of Clyde Huff and Arlie Casle was appointed to request Mayor Holly Toler to issue a proclamation calling upon all business houses to close for a stated period on a day to be selected, and for each firm to provide one or more men to work in the cemetery.

If the business houses would close for only two hours, from four to six, some afternoon, Gold said, the job could be done thoroughly and without undue hardship being placed on any person.

Various women's organizations in Hamlin have taken an interest in getting the cemetery cleaned up, and the Hamlin Cemetery Association, which has led in the movement, will cooperate, Miss Lennie Greenway, secretary, said.

No date was suggested for the cleanup campaign, but the time will be considered when the proclamation is drawn up for issuance.

"If the cemetery were cleaned up properly," Gold said, "it would require the expenditure of hundreds of dollars. But if a group of volunteers will go there with hoes, rakes and scythes, the job can be done in a few hours and at very little cost."

Hamlin High School Green Sox and Hitson were tied for second place in the men's division, with four wins and two losses each.

In the women's division the Stamford team was undisputed leader, with a perfect record. Neinda women were second.

In games played last week the McCaulley boys lost to the Lions Cubs by a score of 7 to 4 in the first game Friday evening.

Hitson men took a close contest from McCaulley by a score of 7 to 5 in the second game, and Celotex defeated Sylvester 7 to 4 for the final game of the evening.

Two hot games entertained softball fans at the park Tuesday night when Celotex men edged out Hitson 7 to 3 in the first, and the Green Sox barely managed to win from Neinda 4 to 3 in the final.

Joe Ford for the Green Sox drove in the winning run on an infield fly. Sugar Green, pitching for Hamlin, allowed only four hits, and Winslett, catching for Neinda, gave up only five hits.

Games scheduled for the coming week are: Friday, July 8, Stamford women vs Neinda; and McCaulley men vs Sylvester. ## Spray Machine Used in Battle Against Flies

Hamlin's new spray machine was being used aggressively this week in the battle against flies, mosquitoes and other insects, city officials said.

The machine already has made several tours of Hamlin, spraying DDT fog in alleys, streets and vacant lots.

Bill Rountree, city water superintendent, has been in charge of operation of the machine, with aid of other city employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Crawford and daughter, Janice, of Brawley, Calif., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Onis Crawford in Hamlin, and of Miss Kathleen Crawford of Haskell and Mrs. Sam Crawford in Stamford last week end.

More Than Half of Air Conditioners Needed by City Hospital Are Pledged

More than half of the 22 individual air conditioning units needed by the Hamlin Memorial Hospital have been pledged, it was announced this week by W. L. Fletcher Jr., chairman of the board of directors.

The board made a plea in last week's Hamlin Herald for individual units to cool the 22 rooms in the hospital, and Fletcher said the board is hopeful that at least 10 more persons will purchase units.

The units are being sold at wholesale cost by a local dealer, and cost is $35 for each one.

Fletcher urged those who cannot afford to purchase an entire unit to pool their gifts with others. He said, gifts of any amount toward Johnson of the cooling systems will be accepted gratefully by the board.

Original plans for cooling the institution were to purchase a large air conditioner for the entire building. However, on advice of the doctors in charge of the institution of the institution, this plan was dropped for adoption of the individual unit system.

By using an individual cooler for each room, the temperature of the room can be regulated to the needs of the patient, Fletcher said.

Fletcher said the board plans immediate installation of the conditioners that have already been pledged.

Meanwhile patients in the hospital were suffering in the intense heat wave that has gripped Hamlin during the past few weeks, and their only hope was in early installation of the cooling systems.

"Unto The Least of These"

There is no more needy project at hand in Hamlin this week than the movement to provide air conditioning units for each room in the Hamlin Memorial Hospital. Nor is there a project that is more deserving of the support of Christian people.

Persons who are forced to lie in bed day and night, with their bodies racked by illness, and their brows burning with fever, should not be subjected to the additional torture of blistering weather.

It is little enough that those of us who enjoy good health can do—the buying of an air conditioning unit to make their stay in the hospital less of an ordeal. But it is something that will prove our faith by our works. It is an opportunity to demonstrate in a very practical way that we are willing to invest in something to help our neighbors, with no idea of financial profit in the investment.

And then, there is none of us who can be assured that we, too, will not soon be lying upon a hospital bed, tortured both by the illness that has seized upon our bodies, and the heat of the intolerable weather.

The cost of $35 for one of these units is not much for many people in Hamlin. It is a mere pittance for a large number of our citizens, but it will be of untold value to those unfortunates who are suffering illness.

It was the Greatest Teacher of all times who said, "... I was sick and ye ministered to me ... insasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these ... ye have done it, also, unto Me."

Easing the engine to a stop at a water tank, the old engineer briefed his green, young fireman. The fireman climbed to the tender, as per instructions, and managed to bring the spout down all right. But somehow his foot tangled in the chain and he floundered right into the tank. The engineer regarded him and his plight with a jaundiced eye.

"Just fill the tank with water, Sonny," he drawled. "No need to tamp it down."

Blocking Real Flood Control

The Holdenville, Oklahoma, Daily News has made this sound observation: "It seems the people can never propose a flood control program without a bunch of socialistic bureaucrats immediately trying to tie a public electric power plan into it."

"This is certain to keep many flood control projects ... from becoming a reality with out further long delays."

"Yet we continue to see every major flood control proposal immediately tied into a power producing project, with doubling and trebling of costs, by the ever-present lame-brains who have never successfully operated a business but who scream to high heaven for more tax money to squander on government-owned and operated power industries."

There should be no misunderstanding as to why this is so. Long ago, socialistic-minded politicians discovered that "flood control" made the best possible camouflage for their schemes. Everybody is in favor of stopping destruction by floods. It seems to have no tinge of commercialism or the socialist ideology. So flood control is always stressed even when the real purpose is to build a government monopoly of electric power production throughout the nation.

The fact that this has caused a waste of billions doesn't trouble the socialists a whit. Neither does the fact that socialization of enterprise is the surest way to the ultimate breakdown of free, representative government. Those who still believe in our traditions will have to stop the trend if it is to be stopped.

Our worth is determined by the good deeds we do, rather than by the fine emotions we feel.

Christ in a Life Helps to Brighten Personality, Enhances Opportunities

By Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

A young businessman of my acquaintance has a particularly attractive personality. He is filled with vitality and energy and takes a rare delight in life. He has a marked power over people. His personality is one that commends itself to everyone. In fact, there is such a light vibrancy about him that it is difficult to describe him. I mentioned him in speaking to a former college classmate of his.

He listened, smiled and said, "Everything you say about him is true, but you should have seen him in his college days. He was dull, inert, lifeless, unattractive, even sullen. The class prophet who undertook to predict the future of each of the members of the class, stated that the gentleman in question was least likely of all members of his class to succeed in life."

"What happened to him," I asked, "to cause such a remarkable change?"

"He got his personality unlocked. I guess that is the answer."

Of course, that is always the answer to every human life. Here we come upon both the tragedy and romance of human nature. It is a sad fact that some people live throughout their entire lifetimes without ever fully having their personalities unlocked. Potentially they are great souls but they never attain it. Oliver Wendell Holmes reminds us that men live and die with all their music still within them.

Some time ago I was taking a walk in Boston and once again passed the glorious statue of Abraham Lincoln with the slave boy looking up at him. On the boy's wrist were the shackles of slavery and Lincoln was striking them from his wrist. That is one of the reasons why Abraham Lincoln will ever be enshrined in the imagination and love of mankind. He set people free. And that is what Jesus Christ does. He sets you free from something that is more binding than any physical yoke. He unshackles the moral, spiritual, psychological fetters which people put around themselves. He unlocks personalities.

How does He do it? Well, first, you have to be free from the entanglement of your thoughts. Because of the law of averages, I feel certain that many readers of this newspaper are prisoners of their thoughts. They have obsessions, quirks, false ideas, notions, prejudices, resentments, temptations, guilts, and these things become tangled in such an impenetrable mass that the personality is held and squeezed, with no opportunity to be released. This happens more often to them because they are highly organized, sensitive, and they ought to know better.

The personalities of some people get locked up because they have not lived right, they have not lived a moral, righteous, Christian life. The Bible constantly tells you to behave yourself, not to sin, not to cheat, or lie or be lustful, not to commit thievery dishonesty or adultery. Why? Why does it say these things? Because when an individual does these things he destroys himself. There has been a pernicious doctrine around that doing these things releases an individual. Release, nothing! All they do is to tie up the individual.

A distinguished doctor has made the following statement: "The worst physical infection can not compare with the way sin and guilt eat into a man. Nervous difficulties are responsible for the diseases and disabilities which cause more than half of the average physician's patients to seek professional advice. In many cases of sin, the patient's sense of guilt causes his will to fail, making impotent every usual physical means for curing his illness. Such an illness may be diabetes, hay fever, peptic ulcer, one type of goiter, asthma, alcoholism, addiction to drugs, promiscuity, or one of many other forms of ill health."

The physician who made this statement knows whereof he speaks. He had been an alcoholic to the point where he had been confined in an institution. Then the Alcoholics Anonymous got hold of him. Today he is the leading surgeon and physician in his community, respected by all. Whereas formerly he scoffed at the Christian faith, he let Jesus Christ come into his life. This doctor, made a prisoner by sin, listened to Him, yielded to Him, and he was set free.

The marvelous experience of this young physician can be duplicated by anyone who invites Jesus Christ to unlock the door of the prison that incarcerates his soul and his personality.

All the strength and force of man comes from his faith in things unseen. He who believes is strong; he who doubts is weak.

Seizure of Business in Labor Dispute Is Un-American, Endangers Democracy

BY GEORGE PECK

There are proposals before the Congress that the Federal Government be granted authority to seize plants, facilities, and mines in labor disputes. Such proposals are contrary to all principles of a free economy. They violate every concept of fair play. Government seizure does not solve labor problems, as a matter of fact, it further complicates it; it leads to more seizure—more Government in business and ultimately to complete socialization. Definitely this is not "The American Way."

All freedom-loving Americans have reason to be gravely disturbed by these proposals which would confer upon the executive branch of the Federal Government authority to seize and operate industrial plants or mines whenever the President sees fit to certify that a labor dispute and cessation of work are jeopardizing the public health and public welfare.

The Founding Fathers, in drafting the Constitution for this nation, wisely set up safeguards against the granting of such unbridled power to any individual whether he comes from Missouri or any other State. They intended this nation to be a Republic, not a totalitarian dictatorship.

Innocent though these proposals may sound, they are a potential danger to our American way of life, in that they would lead to the destruction of private enterprise, which has contributed so much to the strength, prosperity, and growth of our country.

The very suggestion of Government seizure as a device of resolving labor disputes is an admission of weakness. At best it would be a temporary expedient. Under our Constitutional form of Government there is certainly a better way of terminating or averting work stoppages than by the arbitrary seizure of the private property of a non-offending party.

The owners and operators of the nation's bituminous coal mines know from bitter experience the fallacy and unfairness of Government seizure. Under war powers, their properties were seized five times by the Government. On all five occasions the mine owners were forced to make concessions to the Union on all the essential points at issue that were uneconomic and contained the seed of future trouble as the price for having their mines returned to them.

In other words, these seizures were made for one purpose—to have the Government take over and grant the Union demands—which the owners and employers had refused to grant.

Union workers and Union Labor Leaders should be in the vanguard of those opposing proposals for peace-time Government seizure. Under Government seizure, workers become Government employees, thereby forfeiting the freedom of action which prevails in a free economy.

Government seizure of plants or mines is temporary nationalization of industry—just one step short of permanent nationalization. Nationalization, as has happened in every country that has embarked on such a program would lead to lowered production, less efficient distribution, abolition of competition, higher costs, expansion of bureaucracy, lowered standard of living, loss of personal freedom for both worker and employer, and ultimate destruction of representative government.

We cannot afford and do not want policies fraught with such unhappy consequences. If you agree, by all means write your Congressman and your two United States Senators. Let them know that this nation can solve its labor problems without the so-called cure of "seizure" which is bound to prove worse than any disease it is supposed to correct. This nation requires no seizure Caesar.

Today's greatest danger may be a blessing in disguise if we meet it with intelligence and conviction.

Early Treatment for Polio Is Aid In Preventing Permanent Crippling

Parents have reason to dread infantile paralysis, or poliomyelitis. Besides the possibility of death, they fear the child who gets "polio" might be permanently crippled. Some also feel helpless against the disease because there is still no preventive or cure for it and the exact method of its transmission is still not known.

But we do know that prompt treatment under medical advice may prevent even temporary crippling, or decrease the seriousness of permanent crippling, which is sometimes a complication of polio. If the disease causes temporary paralysis, it is still often possible to avoid permanent crippling through one of the newer methods of treatment.

The disease's popular name, "infantile paralysis," can be misleading. Although many cases—approximately 60 per cent—reported are in children under ten years, polio can attack people at any age. Besides, paralysis occurs in only a fraction of the total number of cases, and about 80 per cent of polio cases reported recover without any permanent crippling effects.

Polio is caused by a virus—a disease-producing organism so tiny that it cannot be seen through an ordinary microscope. Paralysis can occur when the virus injures or destroys certain nerve cells which control muscular action.

The disease may occur at any time of the year, but it strikes most frequently in summer. Polio "outbreaks," or epidemics, usually reach their peak in late August or early September.

Early symptoms of polio include headache, slight fever, upset stomach, or those symptoms commonly associated with a cold. At the slightest suspicion of polio, the doctor should be called at once. While waiting for the doctor, the sick person should be put in a room by himself and be kept as quiet and as comfortable as possible.

While we still have a lot to learn about polio, there are certain precautions that can and should be taken against the disease, particularly when there is an outbreak in the community.

Children should be kept out of crowds at this time, and away from anyone who appears to have even the slightest illness—it is believed that the polio virus is spread from person to person. It is wise to avoid physical strain, fatigue or chill, since these seem to make people vulnerable to the disease. Doctors also advise postponing tonsil and adenoid operations during a polio epidemic as an extra precaution.

Parents are wise to seek information on polio. This can be obtained from their family doctor, their local chapter of the National foundation for Infantile Paralysis, or the national office of the Foundation at 120 Broadway, New York 5 N. Y.

New Motor Oil Cleans With Detergent Action

Oil company scientists have applied the principles used in the making of fine detergent washing powders to the manufacture of the new Humble Esso Extra Motor Oil. Adding a specially manufactured detergent to the oil enables it to pick up, break up and hold in suspension soot, dirt, sludge and varnish which damage automobile engines. New Humble Esso Extra Motor Oil, say scientists, keeps an engine clean as a hound's tooth. Humble station salesmen are urging customers to drain dirty, diluted oil and refill with new Esso Extra Motor Oil for extra protection. Adv.

Teague Resigns As Manager of Bryant-Link Co.

Tom Teague, who for almost 31 years has been employed by the Bryant-Link Co., Department stores, resigned last Friday, and said he expects to devote his time to his farming interests in the future.

Teague had been manager of the Hamlin store since October 17, 1933, when he came here from Spur. He also had charge of the hardware and implements department of the local firm.

First employed by the company to be in charge of hardware and furniture department in the store at Caddo, Teague remained there until the oil boom in that town faded, when he went to Spur to continue his employment with the company.

Teague is being succeeded as manager by Johnny Bryant, who took charge of the business last Friday. Bryant is a stockholder in the firm and has served during the past two years as coordinator for the chain of stores.

Teague said this week that he feels regret in severing his relationships with the company with which he has served for almost a third of a century, "but I feel that I owe it to myself to devote more of my time to my own interests."

He expressed appreciation of the people whom he has worked in the Hamlin store during the past years, and said that the relationship that existed among all employees was one of friendship and cooperation.

E. L. Smith of Van, Texas, a former resident of Hamlin, was a guest of his mother, Mrs. P. E. Smith in Hamlin Wednesday.

Bond Campaign To Be Extended Until July 16

Purchases of Series E Savings Bonds through Saturday, July 16, will be credited to county and state quotas in the Opportunity Drive.

This announcement was made in Dallas by Nathan Adams, Chairman of the Treasury Department's Advisory Committee for Texas, who explained that although the promotional phase of the drive ended June 30, the accounting period continues through July 16.

Adams said that Texas would substantially exceed its drive quota of $36,950,000 if sales continue at their present rate. He said that sales as of Saturday, June 25, were $32,637,000, or 88.3 per cent of the quota. He also reported that 79 counties already had exceeded their individual quotas and that the others were expected to do so by the end of the accounting period.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brooks of Midland were guests in the home of Mrs. Brooks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Adams last week end. Mrs. Lynn Davis and daughter, Jerrie Lynn, of Winnsboro, accompanied them here, and will remain as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adams for several weeks.
